WEDDING AT ST. LUKE'S WANTIRNA

MEETING WITH CELEBRANT

- The recommended time to make an appointment to meet with the celebrant celebrating your wedding is six months prior to the wedding date.
- However, if either of the marriage couple has been divorced or an annulment has not been granted, it is suggested that you make your first appointment at least eight months prior to the wedding date.
- Similarly, if either of the marriage couple has not received any or all of their Sacraments, it is recommended that you make an appointment to meet with your celebrant at least eight months prior to the wedding date.

DOCUMENTATION REQUIRED

Bring the original copy of the following documentation to the first meeting with the celebrant:

1. Birth Certificate.
2. Baptism Certificate.
3. Confirmation Certificate.
4. Letter of freedom/Permission to marry outside of your Parish (this only applies to those who reside outside the Parish zone).
5. Divorce and Annulment documentation (if one or both of the couple have been previously married).

PHOTOGRAPHY

Professional photographer and video camera operator must agree to follow standard Church practice and observe Church protocol. He/she must not enter the sanctuary area during the ceremony and should not move around excessively.

CONFETTI, etc

Confetti, rice, rose petals, balloons or similar materials are prohibited both in the Church and in the property area. Failure to comply will incur cleaning costs, which will be passed on to the Bridal couple.

MARRIAGE PREPARATION

This course is run by CatholicCare. Contact CatholicCare to book the course on 9287 5516.

WEDDING BOOKLET

Your celebrant will guide you in the selection of prayers and scriptures. This booklet must be in accord with The Rite of Marriage approved for use in Australia. Submit the draft to the celebrant for approval before printing.

VISITING CELEBRANT

Any Catholic priest or deacon registered as a Marriage Celebrant in Australia may officiate. You should include his name and contact number on your application form in any case that we need to contact him. Please note that he will be responsible:

- To complete the marriage paper/documents,
- To guide you in preparing the wedding booklet.
